An imaginative writer of realistic fiction has evolved from his teeming brain and published in book form a story supposed to have been written in 1930, giving the details of the bombardment and destruction of the cities of New York and Brooklyn by a British fleet. This sad event is supposed to have occurred in 1890, and to have grown out of the retaliatory policy of the United States in dealing with the fishery troubles, supplemented by the neglect of the Government to provide suitable seasonable defenses. Truth is stranger than fiction and often as disagreeable. A few stitches taken in patching up the American navy now might save a great many that may have to be taken under difficulties hereafter—and the country would not miss the thread, beeswax, and other material used in patching.

Statistics of Southern Pacific Company earnings on the entire system from January 1st to September 1st show a total of $29,947,631 gross earnings, as compared with $24,080,577 for the same period last year. The net earnings were $10,085,605, compared with $9,534,220 in 1887. Of these net earnings $8,105,669 came from the Pacific system alone. The Atlantic system net earnings were $1,919,931. The only branches showing a decrease in the net earnings from the same period last year were the New York, Texas and Mexico, the Texas and New Orleans.

Hon. Levi P. Morton, Vice-President elect, said that he felt sanguine all through the campaign. He based his hopeful feeling upon the harmony that prevailed in the ranks of his party throughout the country and upon the principle of protection, which was the king bee of the Republican platform. Mr. Morton fully believes in the doctrines of protection which he preaches, and modestly holds this is a victory for the principles.

It is impossible not to feel a sentiment of profound sympathy for the beautiful lady of the White House who has received notice to quit.

And now the dread probability confronts us that Minister West will write a book on America.

It seems a pity to turn out the genial Dan Lamont, but Dan can be spared. He will have to go.

The Pacific Coast is justly entitled to a Cabinet position, and Mr. Harrison will give it one.

Harrison didn't need New York. We win the fight without that State.

The JOURNAL doffs its hat to Governor Goff, of West Virginia.

Three cheers and a tiger for West Virginia.

Cleveland cannot veto Harrison's majority.

Wm. H. Mills won that $5,000 bet.

The old 1840 boys are happy.

No more Solid South.

CONGRATULATORY TELEGRAMS.

The President Elect Overwhelmed with Them from All Parts of the Country.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—General Harrison began to receive congratulatory telegrams from New York and the East as early as 9 o'clock on election night, when the first message returns indicated his probable election. From that moment to the present writing, telegrams and letters of congratulation have poured in upon him from every city in the Union. A table in his library is piled up with hundreds of these telegrams, there being fully 5,000. So long as there was a shadow of doubt resting upon the result of the election, General Harrison was not disposed to permit the publication of any congratulatory communications. The labor of assorting the telegrams, which continue to arrive, was begun this evening. Among the congratulatory telegrams were those from Chairman Quay, James G. Blaine, John Sherman, ex-Governor Alger, Chauncey M. Depew, Congressman McKinley, M. M. Estee, John M. Thurston, Senator Frye, T. C. Platt, Senators Spooner, Hawley, Dawes, Stockbridge, Paddock, Manderson, Aldrich, Sabin, Congressmen Burroughs, Branch, Bruce, A. P. Williams, of California, and many others. Mrs. Belva Lockwood offered the congratulations of the candidates of the Equal Rights Party. Senator Stanford, of California, telegraphed: "I congratulate you because you are the representative of the better American sentiment of the country, and in you it will find expression and support. I am personally gratified because the entire Pacific Coast gives you in all three of the States larger majorities than ever before given to a successful Republican candidate." Senator Dolph, of Oregon, telegraphed congratulations, as did also Justices Harlan and Matthews of the Supreme Court.

THE SOLID SOUTH BROKEN.

West Virginia Gives a Handsome Majority for Harrison and Elects a Solid Republican Delegation

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 8th.—Democratic State Treasurer Thompson concedes the State to the Republicans by from 400 to 700 majority. This is a confirmation to the steady Republican gains that have been coming in to-day. The Republican State Committee here claim a much larger majority. They claim to have at least three, and probably a solid delegation of four, Congressmen. They claim majorities for the electoral ticket and a majority in the Legislature. The scene of Republican enthusiasm in this city to-night is unprecedented. Thousands of people have crowded the street in front of the Intelligencer building to read the bulletins, and on every hand is heard the cry that the Solid South is shattered at last by the vote of this State.

THURMAN'S FEARS.

The Old Roman's Comment on the Defeat of His Party.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 7.—Judge Thurman said to-night that, so far as he himself was concerned, he cared nothing for his defeat. He much regretted the defeat of the party, however, because he foresaw the mischief the Republican party might do. Already he saw intimations in the Republican people of the return of the carpet-bagging system in the South, and he feared the party, if it obtained control, would seek to insure its continuance in power by admitting Dakota, Idaho and Montana.

Will Carlisle Lose His Seat?

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—A story is in circulation in Covington, Ky., that Speaker Carlisle is to be deprived of his certificate of election, on the ground of the alleged illegality of the ballots cast for him in Campbell and Kenton counties. It is assumed that if these are thrown out his majority in these districts will be overcome. The Kentucky law, it is said, requires that the ballots shall be on plain white paper with no distinguishing features, but the Carlisle ballots were printed on large sheets of perforated paper, so that when the tickets were torn apart the perforations appeared on the edges and made them easily distinguishable from the other tickets. Color is given the story by the fact that the Canvassing Board in Campbell county is Republican.

While it has been assumed by the Democrats that in the event of Harrison's election James G. Blaine would be Secretary of State, that opinion is not shared by Republican politicians in Washington. Mr. Blaine himself, it is said, would not accept a Cabinet position, and there are many Republicans who think that Mr. Blaine's future political aspirations would preclude him from taking an active part in the affairs of the Government for the next four years.

Reports from all over Washington Territory show that Allen is elected by nearly 5,000 majority. Voorhees' majority in 1886 was 2,000. This entitles the Territory to admission as a State.

"VIRGINIUS"

Virginia. Louis James Virginia. Marie Wainwright

His "Virginia" is so far creditable to him as to command praise for its artistic finish, its intelligent tempering and its dramatic pose. Miss Wainwright is an actress of great charm and ability, equalled to her personal graces. Chicago Inter-Ocean.

It was hardly to be expected that his success would prove much of a surprise to those who knew him. The audience warmly demonstrated its approval at the close of the performance. Miss Wainwright in the flowing robes of Virginia looked as beautiful as ever and played with her usual grace. —Chicago Tribune.

It was, in all respects, the work of an accomplished and experienced actor, and deserves, upon its own merits, to be set down as a legitimate success. Marie Wainwright supported him admirably by a judicious performance of the always touching character of "Virginia." —Chicago Herald.

Mr. James has a fine, manly presence, a rich, mellow vocal volume and quality, and in the character of the Roman father made a very gratifying success. Chicago Times.

Mr. James' performance was a powerful one, manly and impressive. The general effect upon the audience was a favorable one. Marie Wainwright was as lovable, girlish and innocent a "Virginia" as could be desired. —Chicago News.

It was superbly strong, but never noisy; indelibly tender, but never unmanly; and more than all, in the eyes of the critic, it was so natural that the art nowhere appeared. Miss Wainwright was all that her admirers expected her to be as "Virginia." —Chicago Mail.

It is not sufficient to say of his "Virginia" that it is a highly polished, or scholarly performance; that it is always consistent, admirable throughout. It is very much more. It not only impresses the auditor, it thrills; holding him spell-bound. There is a simplicity, a breadth and length in Mr. James' "Virginia" which, taking them altogether, surpasses any "Virginia" the present generation has witnessed. For extraordinary vigor, such vigor as is displayed in a powerful physique, and the fearless, manly bearing which dignifies all that "Virginia" says and does, there is added a fitness of feeling, a generous frankness; the absence of suspicion clearly conveyed in look, manner and tone, such as no other actor on the American stage has succeeded in simulating since Forrest's time. Mr. James at one step, proves himself the superior of McCullough in the role in which that actor labored seven years to reach the plane he occupied when at his best. Mr. James develops beauties in the character of "Virginia" never revealed by any actor who has preceded him in recent years. Heart could ask no more than his "Virginia." The "Virginia" Marie Wainwright portrayed surpassed all former efforts. —Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Mr. Louis James and Miss Marie Wainwright had a very auspicious beginning of their season as stars in St. Louis at the Grand last evening. The play was "Virginia," a work which taxes the veracity of the star to an unusual extent, and Mr. James met the requirements admirably. He excelled as the loving father and citizen. As the noble Roman, loving his child with intense devotion, he filled the realms of the highest art, his deep musical voice, which he used with effect, assisting him to the greatest effect. The climax of the forum scene, at which, after the tenderest interview with his "Virginia," he kills her to save her from dishonor, was superbly done, and the plaudits of the audience were unstinted. The character was most admirably enacted, and Mr. James cannot but be regarded as a man with a great future. Miss Wainwright was a most fair and simple Roman maiden, and between her love for her father and her affection for "Iollius," she played the part with great beauty. Her bearing of fear, mingled with confidence in the powers of her father to save her from the hands of "Appius," was exquisitely delicate. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Mr. James is a scholar, a man of rare intelligence, has been thoroughly schooled in the more legitimate ranks of the stage, and is, therefore, eminently qualified to make his mark in the field which he has just selected. His interpretation of the character of "Virginia," the Roman father, is distinguishable at once for its superior merit. He imparts to the character dignity, force and mental vigor, as well as well defined pathos. His voice is rich, sympathetic, flexible and musical. All these qualities, coupled with true earnestness, enable Mr. James to give an exceptionally fine representation of the character, and he has certainly made an almost complete success of the part. Miss Wainwright makes a charming "Virginia." —Chicago Journal.

The "Virginia" of Mr. James was a veritable triumph which artistically has scarcely been surpassed. The role was superbly filled in voice, figure and action, and the rendition not only held the audience deeply interested from beginning to end, but at times electrified power. Mr. James' "Virginia" is great. Miss Wainwright's "Virginia" is a charming and strong piece of work and the performance full of interest. —St. Louis Republican.

Perhaps the greatest gratification to the audience who waited for the appearance of Mr. James last night was his remarkable resemblance to McCullough in his make. The resemblance was not a studied one, but rather due the classic profile, the splendid physique, and mainly bearing of the actor. The voice, too, has the rich quality of the dead tragedian, but it is deeper and better modulated. In its strength and compass no better voice has been heard on the stage since the resonant tones of Gustavus Brooks thrilled his hearers. Magnificently equipped by nature for the role it would be singular if Mr. James, with his intelligence and long experience, did not give at least an acceptable performance of the part. The audience expected that, but their expectations were surpassed and the most pronounced enthusiasm was evoked. As the tender father, the reposeful citizen, the impassioned orator, he was truly great. His forum scene, where he stabs "Virginia," was superbly done. Perhaps a bit more of the soldier could be asked in his camp scene, but there is nothing lacking in the entire rendition that a few consecutive performances will not give. "Virginia" is not a part that taxes the ability of an actress, but it is one that requires some brains to do judiciously. Miss Wainwright in the character was an ideal. Nothing in life could be more classic in its drapery and proportion than her figure and her dressing of the Roman maiden. There is something so appealing in her portrayal of innocent helplessness that it would be strange indeed if her performance did not find its reflex in the great pathos of "Virginia." Every move was grace, every attitude a picture. —St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Mr. James opened his week's engagement in "Virginia." McCullough's great character. To say that James was a second McCullough would be too mild; he is even grander than that eminent tragedian, whose place he expects to take on the American stage. Louis James has everything in his favor, talent, culture, a magnificent physique, and above all, a rich, deep voice, over which he has at all times splendid control. Miss Marie Wainwright, Mr. James' accomplished wife, shares the honors with him. —Kansas City Times.

Whatever may be Harrison's success, politically, as Chief Magistrate, there can be no doubt of his success socially in Washington. Mrs. Harrison is a most lovable woman, well-bred, refined and possessed of great tact and expression. She understands Washington society thoroughly, and during her residence there, while her husband was in the Senate, Mrs. Harrison was one of the most popular ladies in the Senatorial circle. She has a daughter, Mrs. McKee, who inherits all the amiable traits of her mother, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Russell Harrison, was Miss Saunders, daughter of Senator Saunders, of Nebraska. Mrs. Russell Harrison is a beautiful woman, who was very popular in Washington society before her marriage.

Justice Lamar, in conversation, said he thought the tariff issue caused the defeat. He said:

"If Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, should desire a Cabinet position it would be given him. Quay's successful management of the campaign will give him greater prominence and influence in Washington than any other Republican Senator, and should he wish to be Secretary of the Interior he can undoubtedly have the place. One of the best Secretaries of the Interior of the past was Simon Cameron, of Pennsylvania, who taught Quay all he knows about politics. John C. New, of Indiana, may be selected as Postmaster-General, and ex-Senator Sewell, of New Jersey, as Secretary of the Navy."

He was in the act of putting a horse in the stable and tying him and had just run a rope through a hole in the manger and was pulling it with his thumb, when the animal jerked back. The loop caught Bob's thumb, which was snapped off at the first joint. Bob picked up the injured portion and came down town, took a swig of thistle dew and had his hand bandaged. It will be some weeks before he can use his hand.
A RICH STRIKE IN AURORA.—The Walker Lake Bulletin says:
On Wednesday last a rich strike was made in the tunnel of the Antelope mine at Aurora, about 156 feet from the bottom of the winze and in the neighborhood of 300 feet from the surface. The ore body is about three feet wide. It is contiguous to the Young America, from which $1,000,000 was taken out in the early days of that camp. The Antelope is under lease to the Silver Hill Mill Company. The ore will assay from $200 to $300 per ton, and is undoubtedly a big thing for Aurora.

DR. HOSTETTER DEAD.

Close of the Patent Medicine Man's Career.

New York, November 7th.—Dr. J. Hostetter, the well-known patent medicine manufacturer, died this afternoon in this city. He had been ill for some time. Dr. Hostetter was born in Lancaster, Pa., sixty-nine years ago. In 1849 he was seized with the gold fever and went to California, but instead of mining, undertook a general supply business in San Francisco. Here he was burned out, but ultimately successful. After two or more years in California he returned to Pittsburg, and having patented a medicine which was in reality a prescription of his father, who was a physician, and thereby having practically inaugurated the system of patenting recipes and manufacturing them for sale, began to amass a large fortune. Since becoming a wealthy man Dr. Hostetter has been interested with the Vanderbilts in two separate railways, the Pittsburg and Lake Erie being one of them. He was also the founder of the natural gas system of fuel, and has also been a heavy stockholder in two of Pittsburg's gas companies. He leaves a widow and three children.

ELKO COUNTY ELECTION RETURNS.

An Elko dispatch of the 8th says: Senator, tie between Sproule and Russell; Assemblyman, Johnson R., Murray and Corryell D.; Sheriff, Bernard D.; Clerk, Henderson D.; District Attorney, Love D.; Recorder, Vanhook R.; Treasurer, Morgan D.; Surveyor, McClellan R.; Administrator, Talbert R.; Commissioners, Rigby D., Hammill and Wilson R.; Harrison and Morton 100 majority.

I haven't the courage to die, sir. Hardly the courage to live; Can't drink enough to forget, sir. Ain't Christian enough to forgive.

This was the wail of a man who had endured the tortures of "liver complaint" and dyspepsia for years; and he might have endured them for life, had he not heard that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery would make him a well man. He gave it a trial and was cured. Once he was hollow-eyed, emaciated, and slowly tottering toward the tomb; but now he is vigorous, robust and healthy. There is nothing that can compare with the "Discovery" as a curative agent for your stomach, constipation, impure blood and biliousness.

The worst cases of chronic Nasal Catarrh positively and permanently cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

AN EXPLANATION.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word malaria was comparatively unknown,—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver which, in performing its functions, finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

The Perfection

Of the age in the medical line is the liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, California. It is agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach, harmless in its nature, painless yet prompt and thorough in its action. Sold by Wm. Pinner, Reno.

This Means a Republican Senator.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8th.—Cleveland's plurality in this State is 3,444. Congressman Pennington (Dem.) is re-elected by over 3,400 plurality. The next Legislature will stand: Senate, Democrats 7; Republicans, 2; House Democrats, 7; Republicans 14, giving the Republicans a majority of two on joint ballot.

Once More.

The Bulletin says: Harrison will be a President for the whole country. "No North, no South, no East, no West," will be schemed against from the White House. The new President will prove to be a greater man than the country expected. He will not hesitate to call very able men to his Cabinet, and will still be the master mind. Strict integrity will conspicuously characterize his administration. He will be forward to enforce every policy that the Republican platform and his letter of acceptance promised the country. We shall see him doing his utmost to strengthen the principle of protection to every American industry and interest. There will be great prosperity, great development and substantial progress in the knowledge of that kind of Government which is best for a free people, during the coming Administration.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle feb. 21-stw '19

250 Beautiful Lots For Sale!

A RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT AND A HOME
THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Riverside Avenue Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

RENO

Has no equal in Nevada or California for salubrity of climate, wealth of soil, diversity of products and stability. Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State, and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.

NEW ORLEANS, La.

I suffered with catarrh for many years and got so deaf that I went about my Museums, Circus and Theatre giving directions and doing business with a big ear-trumpet at the side of my head. It was very annoying to me and amusing to those who saw me. By the advice of physicians I sought the climate of the Sunny South. In six months I could see no change and was discouraged. At this time I began using Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure. In three months I felt a new man, in six months my hearing returned. I refused to give a testimonial at once for the English Catarrh Cure, as I feared it was not permanent. But a year and more has now passed, and I can now heartily indorse Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure for the cure of catarrh and deafness.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS OUR LATEST IMPROVEMENTS!

"Competition is the Life of Trade," and if you have not seen our latest improved goods you cannot imagine how much better they are than the old-fashioned shoes which only a few years ago were retailed at a dollar or two. Ask your retailer for the JAMES MEANS' $3 SHOE, or the JAMES MEANS' $4 SHOE.

Positively no one genuine unless having our name and price stamped plainly on the sole. Your retailer will supply you with shoes so stamped if you insist upon his doing so. If you do not insist, some retailers will coax you into buying inferior shoes upon which they make a larger profit.

Such has been the recent progress in our business that we are now able to affirm that the James Means' $3 Shoe is every way equal to the best shoes which only a few years ago were retailed at a dollar or two. If you will try on a pair you will be convinced that we do not exaggerate. Ours are the original $3 and $4 shoes, and those who initiate our system of business are unable to compete with us in quality of factory products. In our lines we are the largest manufacturers in the United States. One of our traveling salesmen who is now visiting the shoe retailers of the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain Region writes from there as follows: "I am more than satisfied with the results of my trip. I have thus far succeeded in placing our full line in the hands of 'A No. 1' dealers in every place I have visited. It goes on to say, 'This is a splendid region for us to sell shoes in. In fact so many of the retailers are changing their customers as retail about 50 to the prices which the shoe has been cost at wholesale. The consequence is that the people who wear shoes are paying less for them. Our shoes with their very low retail prices stamped on the sole of every pair are breaking down the high prices which have hitherto ruled in the retail market here, and when a retailer puts a full line of goods in his store they at once begin to go off like hot cakes, so great is the demand for them.'"

Now, kind reader, just stop and consider what the above signifies so far as you are concerned. It signifies you that if you keep on buying shoes bearing no manufacturer's name or fixed retail price stamped on the sole, you cannot tell what you are getting. If your retailer is probably making you pay double what you shoes have cost him. Now, can you afford to do this while we are protecting you by stamping our name and the fixed retail price upon the sole of our shoes before they leave our factory so that you cannot be made to pay more for your shoes than they are worth?

Shoes from our celebrated factory are sold by wide-awake retailers in all parts of the country. We will place them easily within your reach in any State or Territory if you will insist on a retail card and write to us.
